Heffeweisber

Weihenstephan -The Bavarian State Brewery
Germany

Golden-yellow wheat beer, with its fine-poured white foam, smells of cloves and impresses consumers with its refreshing banana flavor. It is full bodied and with a smooth yeast taste. To be enjoyed at any time, especially with the traditional Bavarian veal sausage. Brewed according to our centuries-old brewing tradition on the Weihenstephan hill. Almost a thousand years ago the Bavarian State Brewery Weihenstephan was the monastery brewery of the Benedictine monks. Then, the Royal Bavarian State Brewery, it is now operating as a state directed enterprise under the control of the Bavarian Government. As the oldest still existing brewery in the world it stands upon the Weihenstephan Hill. (McQuade Distributing)

Schell's Goosetown

Sprecher Brewery

Milwaukee, WI

GOOSETOWN

BEER STYLE: Gose

ALCOHOL BY VOLUME: 4.7%

CHARACTERISTICS: Golden orange with thick white foam head. Light and citrusy tartness, backed by a bready, wheat malt character. Touch of coriander spice. Schell's Goosetown is named for a neighborhood in New Ulm, where mostly Catholic, German-Bohemian immigrants began settling in the late 1800s. These immigrants kept and raised gaggles of geese, which wandered freely throughout the neighborhood and fed along the banks of the river. Schell's Goosetown is our interpretation of a traditional, German-style Gose. The beer pours clear, golden orange, with a thick white foam head. It has a bright lemon zest and coriander aroma with a slight saltiness reminiscent of a cool ocean breeze. A refreshingly light and citrusy tartness greets your palate, backed by a bready, wheat malt character and a touch of coriander spice. Lighter bodied, yet full flavored with a lively carbonation that gives the beer a crisp, dry finish. A uniquely refreshing session beer, perfectly suited for a warm summer day.

Paulaner Pils

Paulaner est. 1634

Munich, Germany

The Pils with character....The colour is a brilliant bright yellow, the head pure white, the taste harmonious with a note of hops and pleasantly dry. The very first taste already shows that this beer is a masterpiece of the brewmasters: Full of flavour, elegant and refreshing. A Pils which even northern beer fans appreciate

The Paulaner Pils is strictly brewed by the Pilsen brewing method – using the finest Hallertauer hops. They provide the typical dry aroma, which is slightly less spicy than that of many northern German sorts. This makes the Paulaner Pils so unique: It is dry, with a full taste but mild – really harmonious. Beer sommeliers are always captivated by its intensive, thick head. Fans of Paulaner beer like to tell the story when they offer a toast that Pils originally comes from Bohemia but was invented by a farmer from Southern Germany. The Paulaner Pils is a tribute to him. Our special recommendation: The rather intensive hop flavour harmonizes particularly well with fresh mushroom dishes. The classic: Mushrooms in cream sauce with dumplings.
